

Take-Home Quiz 7

Analyze the following sentences, marking and identifying all verbals and verbal phrases, all dependent clauses, and all verb objects or complements. Explain how all phrases or clauses function.

That darn squirrel had to know that he had it coming to him. Whenever he jumped onto the vine-laden fence, he would hitch his tail, twitch it, then run back and forth several times. Realizing that it was going to happen used to drive him nuts. Nowadays, probably because he was older and wiser, Joles was more patient. “Go ahead; trust in windows. Someday this one won’t be closed.” And on that day, thought the lovely black house cat, that squirrel will get what is coming to him.
