

ELG, 6th handout, objects & complements

Underline and identify all of the verb objects and complements in the following sentences (DO, IO, OC, PN, PA). Also, place parentheses around all prepositional phrases and draw arrows to show the word each modifies.

- 1) Abigail is a calico.
- 2) She is quite proud of that fact.
- 3) She was found in the parking lot of a gentlemen's club on a cold, sleet-filled evening.
- 4) I do not know [whether she is proud of that fact]. {Be careful with this one.}
- 5) In the night, she hunts brushes and swim goggles.
- 6) I find them at the foot of my bed in the morning.
- 7) When a mouse appeared in the living room, she ran the other way.
- 8) One day, I brought her Tilde.
- 9) Tilde is also a calico, but she is a bit wild.
- 10) In fact, she is stark, raving feral.

ELG, 6th handout, objects & complements

11) Abigail sees Tilde as an interloper from barbarian lands.

12) They are not good friends, and I regularly give Orange the order to separate them. {careful here.}