

“Is There Life After College with a Literature Degree?”

Let's presume that there actually is life after college for those of us holding literature degrees. What is that life like? Is it good, bad or indifferent? What are the experiences of those who have gone before us?

Please join the Literature faculty on Thursday, April 6th at 4:30 (till 5:45) in G-208, for a panel discussion led by four alumni of Stockton's Literature program.

Professional experiences of the participants include public relations, teaching ESL, publishing, and the Law.

Good Refreshments will be served.
