

Because the seasons turn, as winter moves to spring, a few happy events recur: snow melts, the leaves that you failed to rake in the autumn lie in wait, spring break comes and spring break goes, the school year lurches toward its close, and of course preparations for the Bash begin.

Ah the Bash! The Really, Really Big End-of-Year Litt/Lang Bash.

Save this date and time: Friday, April 25th, from 4:23 until 6:07 or thereabouts. We gather in the Townsend Residential Life Center, Multi-Purpose Room.

Hey! There will be awards, food, music and festivity. Bring a friend, bring your family, bring a sense of relief, and help us to celebrate the round of yet another year. ♪
