

IT IS NOT ENTIRELY CLEAR WHAT DRIVES YOUNG MEN & WOMEN TO BECOME INTERESTED IN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE, IN GRAMMAR, TENSE, PLOTTING, METAPHOR, ALLEGORY, SOCIAL CONSTRUCTS, CRITICISM, THEORY, METER, FORM, AND A HOST OF OTHER LITT/LANG CONCERNS.

NEITHER IS IT UNDERSTOOD WHY LITERARY FOLK OF ALL AGES CONGREGATE ON THE SECOND-LAST FRIDAY OF THE TERM FOR FOOD, COMRADSHIP AND GOOD AESTHETIC CHEER. THESE OLD PHOTOS, WHILE FUN, WON'T HELP US TO UNDERSTAND EITHER.

BUT GATHER FOLK DO AT . . .

THE REALLY, REALLLY BIG LITT/LANG END-OF-TERM WORKSHOP BASH!!!

FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 2008
4:27 - 6:03
(OR THEREABOUTS)
TRLC-MPR

The Menu to date: Chicken salad with grapes & tarragon, tortellini with pesto, Austrian Peasant delight, Focaccia, old-fashioned wheatballs, a particularly green salad, Tabouleh, Pecan bars for the lonely, Pig cookies, Chocolate Whiskey cake, Hummus and veggies with exacting pita wedges, drinks, ice, garbage bags, plus the possible appearance of an outstanding Hostess treats platter.

