Peter E. Murphy is the author of two books of poems Stubborn Child, a finalist for the 2006 Paterson Poetry Prize, and a chapbook, Thorough & Efficient. His poems and essays have appeared in hundreds of journals including The American Book Review, The Beloit Poetry Journal, Commonweal, The Literary Review, The Shakespeare Quarterly and Witness. He has received fellowships for writing and teaching from The New Jersey State Council on the Arts, Yaddo, The Folger Shakespeare Library, the White House Commission on Presidential Scholars and other organizations. In addition to teaching poetry writing at Stockton, he is the founder/director of the Winter Poetry & Prose Getaway held annually in Cape May, NJ.

Barbara Daniels' Rose Fever: Poems (<http://www.cherry-grove.com/daniels.html>) was published by WordTech Press in 2008. She received two Individual Artist Fellowships from the New Jersey Council on the Arts, was awarded a full fellowship from the Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation to the Vermont Studio Center, and earned an MFA in poetry at Vermont College. Her chapbook, The Woman Who Tries to Believe, won the Quentin R. Howard Prize.
