Tim Seibles

Tim Seibles was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1955. He is the author of several books of poems including Hurdy-Gurdy; Hammerlock; and, most recently, Buffalo Head Solos. He is a former National Endowment of the Arts fellow and has been a writing fellow at the Provincetown Fine Arts Work Center in Massachusetts. He also received an Open Voice Award from the 63rd Street Y in New York City. His work has been featured in anthologies such as Manthology; Rainbow Darkness; Evensong; Under the Rock Umbrella; and The Autumn House Anthology of Contemporary American Poetry. He has been a summer workshop leader for Cave Canem and for the Zora Neale Hurston/Richard Wright Foundation. He teaches part-time for the University of Southern Maine's Stonecoast MFA in Writing low-residential program. He lives in Norfolk, Virginia, where he is a member of Old Dominion University's English Department and MFA in writing faculty.
