

Visiting Writers Series

Fall
2009

Jim Zervanos

Thursday
October 15th 2009
8:00pm
F-111

Jim Zervanos

Jim Zervanos' fiction has appeared in the Chicago Quarterly Review, Cimarron Review, Green Mountains Review, and Folio, which recognized his short story "Church Camp" as the journal's best of 1999. Born in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, he earned his BA and MA from Bucknell University, and is a graduate of The MFA Program for Writers at Warren Wilson College in Asheville, North Carolina. For a year he lived in Athens, Greece, where he finished writing LOVE Park, his first novel. Since 1995 he has taught English at Penncrest High School in Media, Pennsylvania.

Sponsored by:
School of Arts & Humanities
Literature Program

STOCKTON
THE RICHARD STOCKTON COLLEGE OF NEW JERSEY