Judy Copeland

Judy Copeland is a California attorney who left the law to backpack around Oceania, Asia, and Africa, staying with families she met along the way. Her travel stories have been shortlisted in the Pushcart anthology and in Best American Essays and Best American Travel Writing. She holds an MFA in creative nonfiction from the University of Iowa and teaches in the Writing Program at the Richard Stockton College of New Jersey. In Fall 2008 she served as the Jack Kerouac Writer-in-Residence at the Kerouac House in Orlando, Florida.
