to your classes

- The Really, Really Big Lit/Lang Holiday Workshop Bash
- This Friday-----we begin at 4:30; we finish later-----in N-115
- Search your conscience (or your unconscience): ask yourself why you have never been to the bash (if this is so). While you're at it, ask why you didn't enter the Feyt/Armstrong contest.

“You must give up your own wills, and sacrifice your own predilections, and perform the things that are difficult, as well as those that are easy.”

“I am aware it might be, and is said, that there may be the pride of singularity, as well as of fashion; the pride of being covered with sober autumnal tints, as well as of exhibiting the brilliant hues of the rainbow; the pride of quality and texture, as well as of colour and of form. I know it, and I do not justify the one more than I do the other; I condemn all kinds; but at any rate there is a little more dignity in one kind, than in another.”

from The Family Monitor, or A Help to Domestic Happiness, by John Angell James, London, 1828.
