What a
sunset
would look like
if you
played
around with it in a paint
program
for ten minutes
or so?

Did you ever wonder
what
words
rhyme
with bash?

*Whether Professor Ken
Tompkins really reads
Christmas Stories well?*

Calipash, by the way, is the green edible part of a turtle next to the upper shell. Of course, turtles don't think of this body part as edible any more than you think of your shoulder blade as a late night snack.

Or Whether Prof.
Honaker's catering is as good as it's reputed to be?

- Come to the Bash,
- Friday, Dec. 10th,
- 4:30, in N-115, and
- find out

"I mean, we've heard some pretty outrageous claims!"
