

years later her son frederick who was an alcoholic from the age of sixteen died leading was not natural for the lead pipe-fitter for many years he had led a solitary life fitting lead pipes in far-away places lately leading the lead-fitters union had led the strong man to the leading edge of despair and that led him to want to quit