

Handout 5.2

Identify verbs, objects or complements, and identify voice. Mark prepositional phrases with parentheses.

1. She wanted pie.
2. It was a simple need.
3. But she wanted a particular type of pie.
4. She had had grape pie last September [when she gave him that surprise trip to the Finger Lakes.]
5. In the baked pie, the grapes smelled out of this world.
6. Think of the best peanut butter and jelly sandwich, bake it in a pie, but leave out the peanut butter.
7. The pie tasted so good.
8. He gave her a smile and said concord.
9. Those were the Finger Lake grapes in the pie.
10. And she badly wanted another.
11. Luckily, it was September again, pie season.