

Winter is Coming

1. Preparing, Paul went shopping.
2. Betting on a snowy winter, he wanted to purchase a snowblower.
3. It was a slightly used machine.
4. A shop selling rebuilt engines was the setting for his purchase.
5. It sold rebuilt engines: lawnmowers, snowblowers, and gas powered tools.
6. On the drive over, the setting sun blinded him briefly.
7. Temporarily, etched lighting blocked his view of the faded lines of the highway.
8. He decided upon slowing his truck.
9. To do otherwise was foolish.
10. To do otherwise was to be at risk.
11. Driving with the setting sun glaring off the pavement was tricky.
12. Chuck, the mechanic, gave Paul a tour.

13. The owner, named Jacquie, asked Paul to pay in cash.

14. Being prepared, Paul handed her the financing.

15. Smiling, Paul, Chuck, and Jacquie handled the loading onto the truck.
