

ELG, 10th handout, clauses & case

*Find any relative clauses in the sentences below and place them in brackets.
Choose the appropriate case.*

1. That cat walked over to the dog who/whom was reading a book.
2. Who/whomever do you mean?
3. Didn't you see who/whom did it?
4. I would like to know about who/whom he thought had done it.
5. I would like to know who/whom did it, too.
6. Poor woman had to choose between the gentleman who/whom had not a penny to his name and who/whom knows who/whom.
7. Gutenberg who/whom every reader knows by name was a man who/whom few could now identify.
8. Tobias looked at the man who/whom he had just sold his library to.
9. Who/whomever took the book should be soundly reprov'd.

ELG, 10th handout, clauses & case

10. The bibliophile smiled and asked to who/whom should the check be made out to. {What is the mistake in this sentence?}

11. The lovely maiden who/whom reached for the flowers soon found that they were fakes of the rankest sort. {Find two clauses in this sentence.}