Pox and the City: Playtester Questionnaire

Thank you for filling out this questionnaire and helping us improve Pox and the City.

Name of advisory board member:
Lisa Rosner

Type of evaluation (ex: name of course or location in which it was distributed):
Introduction to the Study of History, Stockton College, February 26, 2014

Game Mechanics:
Is the game easy to figure out? Can you usually tell what to click on?

Is the story line interesting to follow? Did you want to find out what was going to happen next?

What was your favorite quest?
History of medicine:

What is one interesting fact you learned about the early history of vaccines?

How easy was it for you to get along with patients? What are some things you said or did that led them to cooperate with you?

How well did you get along with other doctors? What things did you say or do to win their support?

What is one interesting fact that you learned about 19th century diseases, medicines or techniques?
Social History:
As you visited Edinburgh families, what differences did you notice in their lifestyles?

What is one interesting fact you learned about Edinburgh or British history?

Which are your favorite NPCs, and why?

Any additional comments: