

Unidos 2018 Fall Lecture Series

Tuesday, Oct. 2, 4:30-6 p.m., F-111: Migration Experiences in the Americas: Poly Trauma by Associate Professor of Social Work Robin Hernandez-Mekonnen

Tuesday, Oct. 9, 4:30-6 p.m., F-111: Being Latino: Birthright Citizenship, the Census, and Constitutional Personhood by Associate Professor of Political Science Michael Rodriguez

Tuesday, Oct. 16, 4:30-6 p.m., F-111: "Latinos Saliendo del Closet: Socio-cultural Patterns in the Coming Out Process of Latino LGBTQ People" by Assistant Professor of Health Science Luis Garcia

Tuesday, Oct. 30, 4:30-6 p.m., F-111: "De Donde Crece la Palma: Adventures in Cuban-American Science" by Associate Professor of Biology Daniel Hernandez

Thursday, Nov. 8, 4:30-6 p.m., F-111: "Timeless Images and Reflections of Don Quixote as Interpreted by Graphic Artists from the Americas and Beyond" by Associate Professor of Spanish Arnaldo Cordero-Roman

Tuesday, Nov. 13, 4:30-6 p.m., F-111: "Spain, Women and Historical Memory" by Associate Professor of Spanish Javier Sanchez

Thursday, Nov. 29, 4:30-6 p.m., Art Gallery: Closing Reception

