Single Annotation/Summary Assignment
This assignment is completed in preparation for our final research essay. You will be asked to locate a specific article on Tom Paine or his associates and to create a helpful half-page, single-spaced summary of each article for the course blog.

In addition to your half-page summary, also include your article presented in MLA work cited format, followed by a one to three sentence annotation describing the pith and the usefulness of your article.

All essays can be located on JSTOR. Some of you may be assigned more than one essay or review. If so, you may summarize entries in one combined discussion, but you will need multiple annotations. Please place the title and author of your assigned article(s) at the head of your summary. If you believe your essay has been assigned in error, write me.
